DAY 02: KUALA LUMPUR – KOTA KINABALU (B.L.D)

MH2610, KUALA LUMPUR – KOTA KINABALU

09:15/11:55

After breakfast, fly to Borneo. Upon arrival in Kota Kinabalu, the capital city of Borneo State, our guide will meet you up and enjoy your city tours including Pu Toh Tze Temple, Kota Kinabalu City Mosque (pass by), Menara Tun Mustapha and Signal Hill Observatory Platform. After that, check-into Grandis Hotel* or similar.

DAY 03: KOTA KINABALU (B.L.D)

This morning, drive to the Kinabalu National Park. Along the road, you will see idyllic scenery along the mountainous road winding the Crocker Range, and make a short stopover at the Nabalu Market. On arrival at the Kinabalu National Park, study some knowledge of plants as you trek along one of the trails of the Botanical Garden. If the weather is clear, you may spot the beauty of the Mount Kinabalu, which is the highest mountain between the New Guinea and Himalaya.

After lunch, continue to Poring Hot Spring. Here, you can soak in the natural water with sulfur easing your muscles and mind. You can also hike 20 minutes to reach the Canopy Walkway, which would offer a unique perspective to explore the rainforest. After the tour, return to Grandis Hotel* or similar in Kota Kinabalu.

DAY 04: KOTA KINABALU – PENANG (B.L.D)

AK5323, KOTA KINABALU – PENANG
07:10/09:50

Depart to the airport for your early morning flight to Penang. Upon arrival, you'll focus on an informative city tour of Penang. Start off at the Batik Factory, where intricate cloth-making skills - indigenous to Malaysia - are on display. Proceed to discover local spirituality and religious culture at two remarkable Buddhist temples, including the Thai-style Wat Chayamangskalaram and the intricate Kek Lo Si Temple with Chinese, Thai, and Burmese features, together with the magnificent Chinese clan house of Khoo Kongsi. Stay overnight at Areca Hotel* or similar.

DAY 05: PENANG – KUALA LUMPUR (B.L.D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Enjoy 'The Habitat Penang Hill' with this day pass to an authentic, diverse and educational Malaysian rainforest experience. Follow a naturalist guide along a nature trail to uncover a myriad of flora and fauna that occupy this unique area. Starting at the forest floor, naturalist guides take you on a journey along a nature trail to see the plants, trees, insects, birds, reptiles, and mammals that call 'The Habitat' home. Explore the biodiversity of the rainforest canopy on a 230-meter Langur Way Canopy Walk. Visit the Curtis Crest Tree Top Walk at the top of Penang Hill and embrace the 360-degree panoramic views of Penang Island from the highest viewpoint in Penang. Lunch at a local restaurant. Drive to Kuala Lumpur. On arrival, have dinner at a local restaurant. Check into the hotel. Overnight stay at Novotel KLCC* or similar in Kuala Lumpur.

DAY 06: KUALA LUMPUR (B.L.D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Depart your journey towards Batu Caves, passing through Little India and the Brickfields neighborhood, known for its colorful streets and unique shops. After a 30-minute scenic drive, arrive at the Batu Caves to discover the home of Hindu shrines and various religious deities. Listen as your guide explains the Hindu roots of the nation and climb the 272 steps to the golden statue of Lord Murugan. Once at the top, go to Cathedral Cave to see the largest cave in the complex, and hear about the background to this most intricate of Hindu shrines. Lunch at a local restaurant. Then, drive to Thean Hou Temple, a 6-tiered pagoda temple atop Robson Heights. Completed in 1987 and officially opened in 1989, it was built by the Hainanese community of Kuala Lumpur and is dedicated to the goddess Tian Hou (The Heavenly Mother). Continue to China Town to enter the site of dozens of restaurants and food stalls tended by Chinese, Indian, Malay and Bangladeshi traders. Watch as they serve up local favorites, such as curry noodles, Hokkien mee (a Fujian noodle dish), ikan bakar (barbecued fish) and asam laksa (a sour, fish and tamarind-based soup). Next, see the stunning National Mosque of Malaysia (Masjid Negara), set in 13 acres of beautiful gardens. Admire the bold approach taken by its architects who designed it in the late 1950s as a symbol of the aspirations of the newly independent nation. Dinner at a local restaurant. Stay overnight at Novotel KLCC* or similar in Kuala Lumpur.

DAY 07: KUALA LUMPUR – BANGKOK –

CHIANG MAI (B.D)

MH 788, KUALA LUMPUR – BANGKOK

12:10/13:25

VZ 122, BANGKOK – CHIANG MAI

17:55/19:15

You are free at leisure in the morning. After check-out at noon, you are transferred to airport for your flight to Chiang Mai, Thailand via Bangkok. Stay overnight at Wiang Inn Hotel* or similar in Chiang Mai

DAY 08: CHIANG MAI (B.L.D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to visit to Wat Pra Singh or Monastery of the Lion Lord, founded in the 14th century to house the ashes of King Kham Fu and serve as the principal religious center of the Lanna Kingdom. The complex is composed of several buildings of varying architectural and artistic merit that form the most famous temple in Chiang Mai. The lovely Viharn Lai Kham with gilded hall, decorated with murals of everyday life, houses the highly revered golden Phra Buddha Sihing image. Visit Wat Chedi Luang or Temple of Big Stupa, dated back to the 14th century. It took about 100 years to finish the construction of the stupa which was 82 m high and had a base diameter of 54 m and was at that time the largest building of all Lanna. It was here, where the Emerald Buddha was once enshrined in the eastern niche before it was moved to Luang Prabang. Lunch at local restaurant. Afternoon visit one of the highlights is a visit to the 600 year-old temple of Wat Pra That Doi Suthep, near the summit of Doi Suthep mountain. After a drive up the mountain's winding road, the final climb to the site is via a magnificent Naga (dragon-headed serpent) staircase of 306 steps. Inside is an intriguing copper-plated chedi topped by a five-tier gold umbrella which contains partial relics of Lord Buddha. On a clear day, there are incomparable views over the city of Chiang Mai. Return to the hotel for freshening up. In evening, visit The Chiang Mai Night Bazaar, one of the main shopping venues in northern Thailand and is simply a can't-miss part of the whole Chiang Mai experience. It features street-side stalls selling mostly clothing and handicrafts, together with a host of shopping plazas where you can find more unique crafts and jewelry. Have your dinner at a local restaurant. Stay overnight at Wiang Inn Hotel* or similar in Chiang Mai.

DAY 09: CHIANG MAI – ELEPHANT SANCTUARY – CHIANG MAI (B.L.D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to the Elephant Jungle Sanctuary. Learn about the elephants and change into traditional Karen clothing:

- Meet the elephants. Feed, interact, and play with the elephants in a natural environment as you learn about their behavior and history. Take photos with the elephants.
- Mud Spa with the elephants.
- Walk with the elephants to a river and bathe them.
- Eat a traditional meal and then say goodbye to the elephants.
- Leave the Elephant Jungle Sanctuary and drive approximately 1.5 hours back to Chiang Mai.

Stay overnight at Wiang Inn Hotel* or similar

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to Chiang Rai (190km). Stop at Wat Rong Khun or White temple designed and built by famous artist Chaloechai Khositphiphat. A white ordination hall – Phra Ubosot - is decorated with silver glittering pieces of mirrors. There are large mural paintings of the Lord Buddha in different gestures. Drive to the Golden Triangle takes us to a hillside vantage point for a superb view of the point where the mountains of Laos, Myanmar (Burma), and Thailand merge. The vista also takes in the mighty Mekong River joining forces with the Ruak River. The tour speeds up a notch as we take an exhilarating ride in a long-tailed boat on the Mekong River to get closer to the territorial areas of Myanmar and Laos. We head to the ancient capital of Chiang Saen on the banks of this mighty waterway. Afterwards, we proceed to The Hall of Opium, a state-of-the-art 5,600 sq-metre museum with interactive displays, video and multi-media to give a haunting insight into the history of the drug trade, both past and present. This fascinating exhibition presenting the history of opium, its natural properties and its use dating back 5,000 years. The museum also provides a fascinating insight into opium prohibition, crime and conflict and the detrimental consequences of abusing drugs. Lunch at a local restaurant. Then transfer to Chiang Rai. Check in the hotel. Have your dinner at a local restaurant and stay overnight at Heritage Hotel* or similar in Chiang Rai.

DAY 11: CHIANG RAI – HILL TRIBE VILLAGES – TEA PLANTATION – CHIANG RAI (B. L.D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Today you will have another day to visit hill tribe villages and a tea plantation in Mae Salong from Chiang Rai. You will see Akha, Yao, Shan, Lahu and Lisu hill tribe villages. Learn about the traditional garments unique to each hill tribe, and become familiar with rural village life in northern Thailand. Walk along a gorgeous mountain trail near Mae Salong Sample the oolong teas at Choui Fong Tea plantation, relax and enjoy a magnificent landscape where you will experience the process of growing and harvesting tea as well as vegetation propagation to produce tea seedlings at the nursery, whilst teaching you how to pluck tea leaves and enjoy a cup of fresh- roasted tea. Lunch at a local restaurant. Back to Chiang Rai later in the afternoon. Have your dinner at a local restaurant and stay overnight at Heritage Hotel* or similar in Chiang Rai.
