Accommodation: Greenland Primus Hotel or similar

Day 03, 15 May: Nanchang – Mount Lu (B.L.D)

Travel to the Mount Lu Scenic Area from Nanchang. Start your visit at Lulin Lake and Lulin Bridge, where the serene surroundings make for a peaceful start to your trip. Visit Villa No. 1, a historic landmark in the area. Continue to Hanpokou, a renowned viewpoint offering stunning vistas of Mount Lu's peaks and valleys. In the afternoon after lunch, explore the Three-Step Waterfall. This spectacular three-tiered waterfall is a highlight of Mount Lu and is said to be a must-see for visitors. The cascading water and mist create a magical atmosphere, perfect for photos. In the late afternoon, conclude the day at Guling Town, a lively mountain town with charming streets and local specialties.

Accommodation: Aurora Platinum Hotel or similar

Day 04, 16 May: Mount Lu – Jingdezhen (B.L.D)

In the morning, begin your day with a visit to Ruqin Lake and the Heavenly Bridge. Continue to the Valley of Splendor, known for its lush landscapes and historical landmarks, including Guanmiao Pavilion and the Negotiation Platform. After lunch in the afternoon, head to Shizhong Mountain on Poyang Lake. This mountain is famed for its unique rock formations and ancient cliff carvings. Next, travel to Jingdezhen and stay overnight in Jingdezhen.

Accommodation: Meilai Hotel* or similar

Day 05, 17 May: Jingdezhen (B.L.D)

Visit Jingdezhen, China's porcelain capital. You will start to explore this China's "porcelain capital" with an interesting visit to Sculpture Porcelain Factory Market which was once the factory building and park of the Sculpture Porcelain Factory, one of the ten largest porcelain factories in Jingdezhen. After the old porcelain factory was reformed and merged, the local area was vacated and gradually became a gathering place for young people. It is also a porcelain journey, but this place is a place with an artistic atmosphere. Compared with the traditional porcelain in the ancient kilns, the things here are not so much "porcelain" as they are "ceramic gadgets". Many local young artists and students will also come here to sell their works, which mostly have strong personal styles and are more in line with the preferences of the younger generation, such as Japanese anime style, cute animal style and so on. Later, go to Taoxichuan which is a typical post-industrial cultural and creative park. It was transformed from an old porcelain factory and kiln site. It has similarities to the "798 Art Zone" in Beijing and the "Erling Second Factory" in Chongqing. Inside Taoxichuan, there are restaurants, shops, homestays, studios, museums... Especially at night, the colorful lights on the chimneys and factory buildings light up, making it very beautiful. After the leisure time at Taoxichuan, return to your hotel in Jingdezhen City.

Accommodation: Meilai Hotel* or similar

Day 06, 18 May: Jingdezhen – Wuyuan (B.L.D)

Travel to Wuyuan and enjoy the visit to Moon Bay, Likeng Village (Small Likeng), Wangkou Village, and Guankeng Village.

Accommodation: Wuyuan International Hotel or similar

Day 07, 19 May: Wuyuan North Route Tour (B.L.D)

Visit Sixi & Yancun Villages. Sixi & Yancun Villages, Sikou Town, the northern part of Wuyuan County, Jiangxi Province, are about 11 miles (19 kilometers) off the center of the county. Sixi & Yancun Villages feature beautiful scenery and abundant cultural relics. Nowadays, they are loved by local people and tourists. These two villages have become an icon of Wuyuan County. Most of ancient residences are constructed with white walls and bluish roofs. From a long distance, tourists will see a sea of pure white walls. Some small but exquisite windows are wall decors. Tourists will appreciate the scene from different angles. Each roof is decorated with wood carvings and special patterns of dragons and phoenixes. In Sixi Village, brick carvings, stone carvings and wood carvings are three characteristics of ancient Huizhou buildings of Ming and Qing Dynasties. Also we will explore Jiangling, one of the most iconic destinations in Wuyuan. Known for its terraced fields, Jiangling is especially stunning in March and April when the rapeseed flowers bloom, blanketing the hillsides in golden yellow. Enjoy the idyllic scenery and the peaceful charm of the surrounding villages.

Accommodation: Wuyuan International Hotel or similar

Day 08, 20 May: Wuyuan – Wangxian Valley – Shangrao (B.L.D)

After breakfast, we will drive to Wangxian Valley which is also situated at Shangrao, Jiangxi Province. You will go to enjoy both the natural landscape and cultural highlights of Wangxian Valley. Reputed as a real-life version of a fantasy world, Wangxian Valley used to be an abandoned mine site. It offers a profound journey through the harmonious trio of natural landscapes, human heritage, and legendary tales that transcend the ordinary. Here, it invites all who wander its paths to step into a story where every nook is a verse, every vista a painting, and every moment an ode to the enduring dance of nature, culture, and myth. The highlighting experience here is to walk up the cliffside plank roads to reach the top of the mountain, the White Crane Cliff to enjoy a panoramic view of the valley. Stay overnight in Shangrao.

Accommodation: Holiday Inn Express, Shangrao* or similar

Day 09, 21 May: Shangrao – Sanqing Mountain (B.L.D)
